VIOLIN DUO TO PERFORM ON TUESDAY

Moira Levant and Laura Rosenberger are the delightful violin duo called "FIDDLESTIX." They will perform a concert on Tuesday, November 15 for the popular NOON SERIES in Reed Hall Room 160. Moira Levant is a graduate of Wright State University with a degree in Music History. She is currently continuing her studies in Music Literature and Conducting. She was the recipient of the Dayton Philharmonic Women's Association Scholarship Award in 1982 and was awarded the Sigma Alpha College Honor Award in 1991. She is a member of the Miami Valley Symphony and the Wittenberg Chamber Orchestra. Laura Rosenberger received a B.S. in Music Education from Rhode Island College, Providence, R.I. and a Master of Music Performance from the University of Wisconsin at Madison. She is an Instructor of Music at Wittenberg University and performs with the Wittenberg Chamber Orchestra. The duo will present a varied program for your enjoyment including Mozart's "Table Music" which is also entitled, "A Musical Joke."

RAPE PREVENTION SPEAKER HERE WEDNESDAY

How much do you really know about rape? What myths have you heard? Hear STEVEN JONES, professional consultant and trainer for the OSU-Rape Education & Prevention Program, lead a discussion on Wednesday, November 16 in GA 118-119 from 12-1. His topic, "RAPE EDUCATION--What You Need To Know", will be of vital interest to women AND men. He will talk about the male perspective of rape as well as attempt to debunk the myths and broaden the definition of rape. Jones is the owner of "Different Perspectives" (Columbus, Ohio), a human relations firm. Be sure to hear this dynamic speaker!

VERONICA'S ROOM" OPENING FRIDAY

Ira Levin's thriller-chiller, "VERONICA'S ROOM", opens Friday evening, November 18 at 8:00, in the Reed Hall Auditorium. This totally absorbing spider's web of a play entwines fantasy and reality. Susan Kerner, a college student and her friend, Larry Eastwood, a lawyer, have been invited to the Brabissant mansion by the Mackey's, an elderly Irish couple who are struck by Susan's strong resemblance to Veronica Brabissant, the long-dead daughter of the family for whom they work. Susan is induced to impersonate Veronica but, once dressed in Veronica's clothes, Susan finds herself locked in the role --- and locked IN Veronica's room. One critic said of the play, "It's like being trapped in someone else's nightmare." The cast, under the capable direction of guest director Margaret Jones, BGSU, includes Tony Kelly as Larry Eastwood, Chris Blain plays Susan Kerner, David Meeks will be seen as Mr. Mackey, and Jeanne Becker will portray Mrs. Mackey. The play continues on Saturday, November 19 at 8:00 and Sunday, November 20 at 2:00. Tickets are 5.00 General Admission, 4.00 Students, and 3.00 Seniors.
